Dan and Shannon are an acoustic duo who have been playing together since 2013. Coming from musical backgrounds, they have each attained a bachelor degree in music and are continuing to gig around New Jersey. Their repertoire contains a unique twist that includes Irish traditional music.

Shannon recently moved to the USA from Belfast, Ireland, and has a love for singing and playing her Irish whistle. Dan is a local of Stirling and is a classical trumpeter as well as a skilled guitarist. They enjoy playing music at various venues, depending on the genre. They became closer through a love of music...and will be married in July 2018!
