

Classical and Jazz Piano

Sunday, December 9TH @ 2:00 P.M.

THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF STIRLING

158 Central Avenue, Stirling NJ

Free Admission

Considered by many as a child prodigy, Gabriel Plotkin is a multi-instrumentalist from the Bronx, NY. Mr. Plotkin is currently a senior in the jazz piano performance program at William Paterson University - studying under the legendary Harold Mabern, and contemporary great Bill Charlap. His mastery of “The Great American Songbook” is equaled by his ability to perform Ravel and Bach. Gabriel teaches privately and performs around the tri-state with a number of equally talented individuals as well as solo piano performances.

Mr. Plotkin’s program will include Aleksandr Scriabin’s “Album Leaf” and “Prelude”, Ravel’s “Menuet sur le nom d’Haydn”, Chick Corea’s “Children’s Song”, and several of the Bach “Inventions”. In that Mr. Plotkin is also an accomplished jazz pianist, standards from “The Great American Songbook” will be performed and a “Christmas Singalong” will conclude the performance.

It is always a pleasure bringing such versatile performers to Stirling who are destined to become major forces in the music industry.

This will be the third concert in the Church’s concert series for the 2018 – 2019 season. Admission, as always, is free. A short reception will follow the concert at which attendees may meet the performer. Refreshments will be served.
