Stirling, NJ – On February 10, 2019, at 2:00 p.m., The First Presbyterian Church of Stirling will present pianist Yejin Han, who is making her First Pres Concert Series debut.

Ms. Yejin Han is an aspiring pianist who had once lost faith in herself as a performer. Instead, Ms. Han concentrated on teaching and helping others. Having been appointed chairperson for the World Piano Competition's Regional Youth Division in 2000, Ms. Han understands what it takes to win, and her students have taken advantage of her experience by winning numerous piano competitions and perform at such famous venues as Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center. Having come back to the stage after a 16-year hiatus, Han shares her story in order to inspire others to achieve their dreams.

Ms. Han studied at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and holds a Master of Music in piano performance from Louisiana State University. She has been featured as a soloist with several orchestras and has performed as a soloist and as part of several chamber music groups.

For more information, go to www.fpcstirling.org or call the First Presbyterian Church of Stirling at 908-647-1033.

This will be the fourth in the Church's concert series for the 2018 – 2019 season. Admission, as always, is free. A short reception will follow the concert at which attendees may meet the performer. Refreshments will be served.
