

The First Presbyterian Church Of Stirling Presents

Itay Goren, Pianist Sunday, October 13 @ 2 PM

Studying music from an early age, Itay continued his education at William Paterson University in New Jersey. Under the guidance of pianist Elka Kirkpatrick, Itay graduated with degrees in both classical and jazz performance and received many honors and awards from the University. Upon graduation he joined the faculty of the music program at Ramapo College of New Jersey where he taught for 11 years.

Itay Goren has performed in Europe, Asia, the Pacific and the United States. His recitals in Madrid, Prague, Paris, and New York City were greeted with high acclaim. After his concert at the Festival de Cámara in Villaviciosa de Odon in Spain, a review of the festival characterized his performance as being “especially emotional”. Other notable festival appearances include the Pacific Summer Music Festival in Guam, The American Music Festival in France and the Hindemithon Festival in New Jersey.
