Jiafan Shi is currently completing her graduate studies at NYU with Marion Feldman, where she also serves as an adjunct instructor. She was the recipient of NYU Orchestral Scholarship and Talent Scholarship, and is the principle cellist of NYU symphony orchestra. Dedicated to both music performance and pedagogy, Jiafan worked as a professional cellist at the Shanghai Opera House (2010-2014), where she performed in more than 300 productions, including Turandot under Lorin Maazel and La Bohème under Daniel Oren. Prior to working at the Shanghai Opera House, Jiafan received her bachelor of art degree from Tongji University. She was a recipient of the National Scholarship, the highest awarded to Chinese university students.

A child prodigy from Appleton, Wisconsin, Joseph Hauer is no stranger to our concert series. At the age of 23 he has already performed concertos with the Oberlin Orchestra, Fox Valley Symphony, Madison Symphony Orchestra, and Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra. Hauer is currently pursuing a Masters in Piano Performance with Eteri Andjaparidze at the NYU Steinhardt School of Music, where he holds a position as Adjunct Instructor of Piano.

Join us for an afternoon of music, coffee and pastry. For more information, go to www.fpcstirling.org or call the First Presbyterian Church of Stirling at (908) 647 - 1033.
