Pastor's Letter

The following is from the 14th Century theologian and mystic, Meister Eckhart:

We are all meant to be mothers of God. What good is it to me if this eternal birth of the divine son takes place unceasingly but does not take place within myself? And what good is it to me if Mary is full of grace and I am not?

What good is it to me for the creator to give birth to a son if I do not also give birth to the creator in my time and in my culture?

Then, then, is the fullness of time: When the Son of God is begotten in us.

It is so easy to think that Christmas is about us. God sent God's Son for us, personally. I am not saying that God didn't send the Son for us, but God sent the son for everyone else as well – even those who don't know the story. God sent the Son for those who follow a different story.

What Eckhart does though, is remind us that Christmas, while being a blessing for us, is also a responsibility. We cannot let "God with us" be literally just about us, but we must show Christ to others. We must give birth to "The Word" in our lives for others. We must put on the garb of Christ at company and family Christmas parties. We must give birth to Christ in the life of someone who is lonely or hurting. We must give birth to Christ in the life of someone who is hungry by feeding them not just with food, but with hope and peace.

Perhaps you know someone who can use help this Advent/Christmas season. Make it your mission to give birth to Christ to them. If you do this, I would love to hear what you did.

Let's not just adore the baby in the manger; let's give birth to him in our world. Don't forget you can also invite others to the various services we will be having in our church. You will find them listed in this newsletter.

Peace,

Tom

Fourth Sunday Focus

Fourth Sundays give us an opportunity to connect with other members of our church family in a relaxed atmosphere: a pot of tea, a Box o'Joe, Munchkins . . . and conversation.

Our next "Fourth Sunday Focus" gathering will be on Dec. 28th in Pollard Hall. We start around 8:45 a.m. and end by about 9:45 a.m., but join us whenever you can. If you have a topic you'd like to discuss, please contact Tom Parziale.

Heritage Sunday

On Nov. 30th, the church will be celebrating Heritage Sunday, when we honor our Scottish history with a "Kirkin' of the Tartan" service (translation: Church blessing of the tartan). Once again, we will have a guest bagpiper, Dave Paladino, who will play the tune Richard Streeton composed for our church entitled, "Stirling on the Hill."

Following our worship service, there will be a special coffee hour with lots of Scottish goodies to enjoy. The Worship Committee invites anyone who enjoys baking to bring their favorite Scottish goodies to share. Of course, a fine pot of tea will also be served! Please plan to join us for this festive service as we celebrate our church's Scottish heritage, and remember to wear a wee bit of plaid.

First Sunday of Advent

Nov. 30th is also the first Sunday of Advent, and we will begin a special program that will continue for the four Sundays leading up to Christmas Eve. Come and celebrate the wonderful Season of Advent.

Liturgists for December

Non-Perishable Food Collection, Dec. 7th

On the first Sunday of each month, we collect donations of non-perishable food during the worship service. While we are receiving the Lord's Supper, we also want to provide for others. The food is donated to the township food pantry at St. Vincent Church. We continue to collect non-perishable food in the baskets located in the church entry-ways during the rest of the month.

Blue Christmas

On Sunday, Dec. 21st at 4:00 p.m. we will offer our Blue Christmas Service. This service is for those who are having trouble with grief, sadness, or loneliness this holiday season. If you know of someone going through these emotions, please invite them to this service, or bring them to the service with you. It is a service that claims the Christmas story and promise for people going through difficult times.

You can drop items off in Pollard Hall on Sunday mornings, or give cash donations to Madeline or Jean. Thank you!

If you have blankets, jackets, coats, sweaters, or other warm clothing to donate, please place them on the bench in Pollard Hall. Men's wear will be donated to the Bridges Outreach Program and all other items, including children's clothing, will go to St. Joseph's Social Services in Elizabeth. Your donations are much appreciated.

Please plan to join us, and invite your family, friends, and neighbors. The Deacons would appreciate donations of cookies.

Church Flowers

Don't forget to sign-up on the Flower Chart in Pollard Hall if you would like to place flowers on the chancel for Sunday morning worship in honor or memory of someone. Allow enough lead time to have them ordered for the date you would like. The cost is $30, and cash or checks (made payable to: Flowers on the Ridge) should be given to Israel Sierra.

When you sign up on the flower chart, please be specific, i.e. in memory, honor, given by, and print clearly. Thank you.

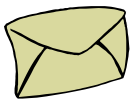

Emergency Clean-Up Buckets

During Fellowship Hour on Sunday, Nov. 23rd, everyone pitched in and assembled 10 Emergency Clean-Up Buckets with supplies that had been donated by the congregation or purchased by the Deacons. Shaylyn Gallagan will deliver the buckets to a drop-off location; from there, they will be shipped to a Church World Service site in Maryland. The buckets will then be sent out when they are needed to help following floods, hurricanes, tornadoes, and other disasters in the United States.

After Hurricane Sandy, buckets were sent to New Jersey to help us recover from the disaster. Thank you to everyone for donating supplies and for helping to assemble the buckets.

Deacons Fund

There are green envelopes in the pew racks for donations to the Deacons Fund. This fund helps support the Mission work of the Board of Deacons. Recently, it was used to purchase supplies for the Emergency Clean-Up Buckets.

Water Available During Worship

There is a pitcher of water and cups available in the Church narthex in case you need a drink during worship. Please feel free to help yourself or signal an Usher to bring it to you.
