Pastor's Letter

The following words were spoken by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial during the March on Washington on August 28, 1963.

And so even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream.

I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal. . ."

. . . I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, and every hill and mountain shall be made low, the rough places will be made plain, and the crooked places will be made straight; "and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all flesh shall see it together."

I bring this up not to talk about the racial issues of our time, but to help us realize that great movements in history generally start out as dreams. The dreams work in the lives and conscience of the dreamer and others until the dreams become an alternate reality and then true reality.

In 2013, we began the process of dreaming in our New Beginnings program. The dreams were transformed into a possible alternate reality in our Mission Statement and our Vision Statement. We said we believed that God is calling us to be about "Feeding those who Hunger."

Some of us have also been reading and talking about Robin Meyers' book, The Underground Church. Meyers believes the church is in a time of great decision-making. Will we be the Church of Jesus Christ, which he says is not embodied in much of the Christian Church today, or will the Christian Church die?

We have a dream at the First Presbyterian Church of Stirling. Be a part of making it our reality by attending the Annual Meeting on Jan. 26th and talking about where we have been and where we need to go.

See you in Church!

Tom

Christmas Eve Candlelight Service

We gathered on a crisp, snowy evening for our annual Christmas Eve Candlelight Service of Lessons and Carols, with luminaries lighting the path to the sanctuary. Deacons Corner*- Katherine Ihringer*Community Christmas Carol Sing & Ring

More than 40 members, friends, and neighbors enjoyed a wonderful evening of beautiful music performed by our handbell choir; singing Christmas carols by candlelight on the front lawn of the church; and, then warming up in Pollard Hall with Christmas wassail, hot chocolate, and cookies. It’s a wonderful holiday tradition that our church hosted for many years in the past, and several of those attending said how happy they were that it had been brought back.

Thank you to everyone who helped make this event possible, including the Board of Deacons, handbell choir, those who provided cookies, and everyone who helped with set up and clean up.

Deacons Fund

There are green envelopes in the pews for donations to the Deacons Fund. This fund supports their Mission work. Thank you.

Church Flowers

Don’t forget to sign-up on the Flower Chart in Pollard Hall if you would like to place flowers on the chancel for Sunday morning worship in honor or memory of someone. Allow enough lead time to have them ordered for the date you would like. The cost is $30, and cash or checks (made payable to: Flowers on the Ridge) should be given to Israel Sierra.

When you sign up on the flower chart, please be specific, i.e. in memory, honor, given by, and print clearly.

Water Available During Worship

There will be a pitcher of water and cups available in the Church narthex in case you need a drink during worship, especially during the winter months when the air is very dry. Please feel free to help yourself or signal an Usher to bring it to you.
