Pastor's Letter

Perhaps some of you have heard me say recently that I finally “got smart.” What I mean by that is that my wife, Barbara, gave me a smart phone for my birthday. Now I can get my life organized and condensed onto this little handheld computer. It is my phone, my calendar, my texting apparatus, my game center, my email, my internet connection, my weather station, my clock, my alarm clock, my camera, my gps, my store, my music player, and other things I don't know about yet – not that I know how to do all the things I mentioned above.

It seems everyone has one of these little “smart” gadgets in their pockets or purses. Wherever you look, you see people perusing or talking on their phone, or taking pictures of one another or selfies. And it is not just in the United States. Recently, I came across an ad for a restaurant in Beirut, Lebanon where, if you surrender your cell phone to the restaurant when you enter, they will take 10% off the cost of the food. Their reasoning is so that patrons will socialize with one another and enjoy the meal cooked for them. Then, they can retrieve their phones on their way out.

Seems like a good idea to me. It also seems like something the church needs to be aware of. Cell phones make it easy for us to be self-absorbed. They make us feel so important that we need to have all of our contacts and other resources available to us at all times. We don't see those around us while we are looking at the little screen. October is a month when we consider the needs of other people -- the hungry, the children, those who suffer from domestic violence -- we even begin the month with World Communion when we sit at Christ's table with Christians from around the world.

I've always felt that the special awareness emphasis of October makes it a time to consider other people--the strangers around us. I hope that you find time to put down your phone and truly communicate with others during this month and every month. Perhaps you can create off zones in your life. Off zones would be those times and places where you turn your phone off and make yourself present to whatever is happening at that moment. Besides cars, restrooms, and performances, off places could also be in restaurants or for quiet times in your life when you can just sit and reflect. The wonderful thing about today's phones is that they have voicemail and caller ID, so when you turn your phone back on you can connect with someone you missed. We need to be connected, but we also need times when we are disconnected so we can notice the person in front of us or notice the person within us.

See you in Church!

Tom

CROP Walk 2014

- Debra Sprague

The CROP Walk is coming up on Sunday, October 19th, in New Providence. CROP Hunger Walks are interfaith hunger education and fundraising events sponsored by Church World Service. For those who want to live out our vision of "Feeding Those Who Hunger," this is a wonderful way to be involved.

Consider joining us on the Walk this year! Email or see Debra Sprague for a form to get started. You can also sign up online and use tools on the website to let everyone know that you're participating; supporters can pledge online, too. If you cannot walk and still want to help, consider sponsoring one or more of our walkers and asking others to do the same. Invite a friend (or group!) along to walk, too. Thank you for your support.

You can sign up and/or support our team by pledging online. Here's the link:

World Food Day, October 16thWhat is World Food Day?

World Food Day is a day of action against hunger. On October 16, World Food Day, join the global movement to end hunger. Be a part of the solution in your community and around the world. Because when it comes to hunger, the only acceptable number is zero.

The 2014 theme is Family Farming: Feeding the World, Caring for the Earth

Why care about hunger?

- Because the right to food is a basic human right
- Because the cost of neglect is too high
- Because it is solvable in our lifetime
- Because it can happen to anyone

National Observance of Children's Sabbath

On Sunday, October 19th, we will participate in the national observance of Children's Sabbath during morning worship. This year's theme is, "Precious in God's Sight: Answering the Call to Cherish and Protect Every Child." This event is a way for faith communities to celebrate children as sacred gifts and provide the opportunity for houses of worship to renew and live out their moral responsibility to care, protect, and advocate for all children.

Youth Mission Project - School Kits

- Debra Sprague

THANK YOU to all who contributed items and cash to our Church World Service School Kit campaign. Our Sunday School students assembled 18 bags after church on Sept. 21st. Thank you to Elsie Turqman and Jan Somers for making all those beautiful bags in kid-friendly patterns. Thank you also to Lore Pateman for delivering them to the New Jersey drop-off location in Bloomfield.

Let's all support the next kit-assembling project that the Deacons are coordinating - CWS Emergency Cleanup Buckets. For more information go to: <http://www.cwsglobal.org/get-involved/kits/emergency-clean-up-buckets.html>

Adult Education

Fourth Sunday Focus

- Tom Parziale

Fourth Sundays give us an opportunity to connect with other members of our church family in a relaxed atmosphere: a pot of tea, a Box o'Joe, Munchkins . . . and conversation.

Our next "Fourth Sunday Focus" gathering will be on Oct. 26th in Pollard Hall. We start around 8:45 a.m. and end by about 9:45 a.m., but join us whenever you can. If you have a topic you'd like to discuss, please contact Tom Parziale.

Looking ahead:

Mark your calendars for Nov. 9th, following morning worship: there will be a pot-luck brunch and discussion on Immigration, featuring the movie from Sojourners, The Stranger.

Worship Committee

- Janet Parziale

Sunday, October 5th, is World Communion Sunday. In 1936, for the first time, the first Sunday in October was celebrated in Presbyterian churches in the United States and overseas. From the beginning, it was planned so that other denominations could make use of it and, after a few years, the idea spread beyond the Presbyterian Church. Please plan to join with Christians around the world as we celebrate the Sacrament of Holy Communion together.

Peacemaking Offering

“PEACE I leave with you; my peace I give to you” (John 14:27)

Our annual Peacemaking offering will be collected on World Communion Sunday, October 5th. Please support this Presbytery program that is so important to the peace process here at home and around the world. Of the total collected, 25% will be donated to a local organization, as voted by Session.

Non-Perishable Food Collection, October 5th

On the first Sunday of each month, we collect donations of non-perishable food during the worship service. While we are receiving the Lord’s Supper, we also want to provide for others. The food is donated to the township food pantry at St. Vincent Church. We continue to collect non-perishable food in the baskets located in the church entry-ways during the rest of the month.

All Saints Sunday, November 2nd

On Nov. 2nd, we will be observing All Saints Sunday, a day when Christians give thanks for all the good people God has placed in their lives. During this service, we will take time to remember those special people we have lost during the past year, and a candle will be lit as each name is read.

Please complete the form below with your name, the name(s) of anyone you would like to have remembered, and their relationship to you. Please place the form in the offering plate at church or send it to the church office by October 26th. Forms will also be available in the Church bulletins.

Bridges Outreach Lunch Program

- Jean Hoffman, Coordinator

Our next commitment date for preparing 40 lunches is: Friday, Oct. 10th, 9:30 a.m., in Pollard Hall. We are in need of small cartons of juice, snacks of pudding, cookies, nuts, Goldfish, pretzels, etc., fruit cups, and plastic spoons. Of course, cash donations are always appreciated and help with the purchase of bread and lunch meat. This is really an economical method of feeding the needy. You can drop items off in Pollard Hall on Sunday mornings, or give cash donations to Madeline or Jean. Thank you!

* After Halloween, we will collect leftover candy to add to the lunches as a special treat.

Upcoming date: Nov. 7

Family Promise - Paper Products Collection

During the month of October, we will be collecting paper products for the Family Promise of Morris County (Interfaith) network. Suggested items include: facial tissues, paper towels, bath tissue, and napkins. They can be placed on the pew inside Pollard Hall. This program helps people right in our own “backyard,” and it would be wonderful to surpass last year’s donations!

Deacons Corner

The Deacons have decided to participate in a Church World Service program and start a collection at church to make Emergency Clean-Up Buckets. Please give supplies to any of the Deacons; and, if you have any questions, ask one of the Deacons. We appreciate any donations of supplies or money to purchase supplies. Our Mission

Jesus said, "Feed My Sheep." This welcoming and caring family, empowered by the love of Christ, shares the grace and peace of God's blessings by serving those who are hungry in body or spirit.
