Pastor's Letter

A man had a heart attack and was rushed to the hospital. He could receive little company and was not to be excited. While he was in the hospital, a rich uncle died and left him a million dollars. His family wondered how to break the news to him with the least amount of excitement. It was decided to ask the preacher if he would go and break the news quietly to the man. The preacher went and gradually led up to a question. The preacher asked the patient what he would do if he inherited a million dollars. He said, "I think I would give half of it to the church." The preacher dropped dead.

I have a running joke when I see people playing bingo or running a 50/50 -- I remind people that they need to remember that the church gets 50%. I've even done it when the chorus I am in runs a 50/50 among the chorus members.

Over the past year, we have sent out a number of requests for money for the church budget for some of the building projects we have had to accomplish, and people have responded. Since November, we have spent over $101,000 dollars to put a new roof over the office wing, a new roof on the steeple, replace the parking lot, and install new carpet in the choir/parlor room and the childcare room.

We did all of this and only had to borrow $30,000 from our Endowment Fund. People came through, and we also had money we had been saving for a "rainy day." We used a large amount of the voucher fund to help pay for the roof. We received several large checks for the parking lot, we received several checks from the insurance company, and people have been giving money over time to the roof fund. These projects are done, and there is nothing big on the horizon that needs to be done. And we did all of this as we struggled to keep the operating fund of the church solvent.

God has been with us and watching over us. Now we need to work to answer the question, "Now that the major work on the building and grounds is done, what are we going to do with it?" As I often say, it is not about us. It is not about keeping things nice for ourselves. It is about keeping these resources up so that we can use them to minister to others. How can we use our nice facilities to feed those who are hungry? I hope you will help us respond to that question.

See you in church!

Tom

At its April meeting, the Session made the decision to move the childcare/nursery room to what used to be the choir room/parlor, and the childcare/nursery will now become a meeting room. We will use the meeting room for adult education programs and our Session and Board of Deacons meetings. The red choir chairs that have been stacked in the choir loft of the sanctuary will be moved to the meeting room.

Our next commitment date for preparing 40 lunches is: Friday, June 12, 9:30 a.m., in Pollard Hall. Presbytery Project: Stop Hunger Now

- Lore Pateman

On Saturday, May 2nd, a group from our church traveled to the Community Presbyterian Church in Chester to work on a project entitled, Stop Hunger Now. They packaged thousands of nutrient-rich meals by working in an assembly line, each doing a different job. Volunteers fill bins with raw ingredients, scoop ingredients into meal bags, weigh and seal the bags, and box and stack them on pallets. It is amazing how much can be accomplished by working together for just a few hours to help assemble these much-needed meals.

Thank you to all of our workers, pictured here (in their hair nets):

Rev. Peters, Tom Parziale, Shaylyn Gallagan, Lore Pateman, Joyce Koenig, Rene' Phelan, and Madeline Hahl

Family Promise of Morris County

- Phyllis Clemson & Jan Somers

Thank you to everyone who helped make our hosting of the Family Promise program on May 5-6 so successful by providing dinner, hosting for the evening and overnight, or making a donation towards food. Your efforts were greatly appreciated by the program's guests.

Our next responsibility to host is Tues., July 7th. Please watch for more information in the Summer issue of Stirling Stuff.

Community Food Bank

- Kai Ihringer

Thank you to everyone who joined us to work at the Community Food Bank in Hillside on Saturday, May 9th.

This time we did something new--we assembled fliers that are mailed to thousands of homes in New Jersey asking for contributions to the food bank. These fliers, sent out every three months, result in approximately $600,000 in annual donations. So, even though we didn't work directly with food and household items, we still had a positive impact on feeding the hungry in our area.

Mark your calendars now for our next Food Bank work date:
November 21st

Our team of volunteers included:

John Arnold	Tom Parziale
Lynne & Ian Blakeslee	Rev. Peters
Susan Brodziak	Doug Smith
Megan & Shaylyn Gallagan	Rudy Zeidel
Brooke Kupferman	Kathy Lare
Kai, Katherine, & Lucas Ihringer

Deacons Corner

- Katherine Ihringer

It is hard to believe that June is already here, which means that summer is about to begin! On June 14th, we will have our annual church picnic outside immediately following church. It is always a lot of fun! Please come and bring a yummy item of food for the picnic.

On June 28th, we have a special coffee hour celebrating all of the Buildings and Grounds Committee members. They have done a lot of hard work and fixed our parking lot, so we want to show our appreciation for them.

Just a reminder, please donate to the Deacon's fund in the green envelopes. Every little bit helps the Deacons and will be truly appreciated.

Congratulations

Brooke Kupferman is graduating from Watchung Hills Regional High School and will be attending Rutgers University in September.

Update on Previous Graduates

Lore and Rich Pateman report that their children, Kim and Steven, have been traveling. Here they are at the Taj Mahal in Agra, India. They were amazed by the Taj Mahal, and the Himalayas were beautiful. They went to a place where the Dalai Lama was in exile and were impressed by the Buddhists. They ended their trip in Rajasthan riding camels in the desert. What touched Kim the most was how much poverty there was everywhere. They definitely learned a lot in their travels and met many lovely people.

In September, Steven will be attending the University of Colorado in Boulder to study Environmental Engineering.

Please continue to save Labels for Education, Box Tops for Education, and pop-top can tabs. The labels are used by parent organizations to earn educational and recreational items for students. The can tabs are sold by weight to recycling centers, and the proceeds are donated to Ronald MacDonald House to help fund their programs for hospitalized children and their families.
