Summer 2015

Pastor's Letter

On Music Sunday (June 21), we sang and considered hymns that dealt with God's creation. I shared with the congregation my belief that God's amazing and diverse creation is a wonderful witness of God's presence in the world and also provides ways for us to understand God and God's work in the world. I also shared a hymn entitled, Hymn of Promise, by Natalie Sleeth. The first verse is:

*In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree;
in cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter, there's a spring that waits to be;
unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.*

This hymn shows us ways we can look at flowers, trees, and seasons and see the promise of the resurrection. The problem is that often we are too busy or distracted to see these symbols and witnesses. As you go through these summer months, I encourage you to look for these symbols and witnesses that say something about God. Make it your mission to look for one every day of the summer. Perhaps you could even write them down each day in a little book. You could write what you saw, where you saw it, and what it was a symbol or witness of. I encourage you to see this exercise as a way of bringing God into your daily life.

I hope you have a wonderful Spirit-filled summer full of fun, relaxation, and joy. Barbara and I will be at Chautauqua Institution from July 17 – August 1. We will be home for a week and then, as some of you know, we will be taking a river cruise on the Rhine River from Amsterdam, the Netherlands, to Basel, Switzerland. We will leave on Aug. 8 and return on Aug. 16. I pray that all of us may have safe travels this summer.

See you in church!

Summer Finances

During the summer, many of us may be away on vacation; but, the truth is that the church still has to pay its bills and staff. Please keep your pledge current, because we have very little to fall back on to meet our obligations.

Argyle's Fish & Chips Dinner, June 6th

- Rev. Tom Peters

How can we put that day in perspective? It was a wonderful day of fellowship, serving the community, and hard work that was a joy to do. One of the gentlemen from Argyle's said it was the most organized dinner they had ever worked at. We had hoped to make $3,500 this year; we earned a profit of $3,565!

Thanks to all of you who helped by selling tickets and working the day of the dinner. I want to say a special thank you to our youth who did a wonderful job of serving the people and helping to tear down after the dinner. We had friends of some of our youth as well as some members of Kids Can Fence, which meets in our church. We would have had a very difficult time without them.

I also want to say a big thank you to Lore Pateman for her leadership on the organizing committee and working hard to pull it off. It was more work this year, since we had to fix up the back rooms that had been damaged by water from the roof leaks in case we needed to seat people indoors. The committee, consisting of Debra Sprague, Kai Ihringer, Carolyn Malfatone, Ed Gerecht, Tom Parziale, Paul Wermuth, Shaylyn Gallagan, Lynn Blakeslee, and Tom Peters, worked hard and put in a lot of time.

The gorgeous day we had means this year's dinner will be one that future dinners will be measured against. We now have a fund-raiser for which we are known.

Once again, members of the Rampant Lion Pipe and Drums, under the direction of David Palladino, entertained guests.

Here are just some of our workers, near the end of a very busy day.

Summer Discussion Series - Wednesdays, July 8 - Aug. 12, 7:30 p.m.

Once again, we will join with Meyersville Presbyterian Church and Trinity United Church (Warren) to hold a summer series of discussions on a variety of theological topics. All six Wed. evening sessions will held in Stirling in one of our air-conditioned meeting rooms. The discussions will begin at 7:30 and end by 9:00 and will be led by pastors or lay people from one of the three churches.

In the past, we've had people from at least 6 different churches joining in the discussions - although participants do not have to be affiliated with any church in order to attend. Each session is a stand-alone topic, so people are invited to come when they can, to one session, or to all six.

Date	Leader	Topic / Title
July 8	Rev. Tom Peters	"Civil Disobedience" How do Jesus' challenges to the authorities of his day provide an example for us?
July 15	Rev. Barbara Aspinall	"Floozies of the Bible" Who are these women, and what are they doing there?
July 22	Andrew Galgoci	"Ethical Challenges of Climate Change" What responsibilities do Christians have toward those most affected by global climate change?
July 29	Rev. Barbara Aspinall	"What Is Heaven Like?" Angels with harps, pearly gates, a place, a state of mind, unity with divine consciousness? What does the Bible say? What do you believe?
August 5	Rev. Tom Peters	"Spirituality: How Does it Change Through our Lifetime?"
August 12	Heather Harris-Galgoci	"Are You Saved?" What DOES this mean??

Please sign up in Pollard Hall. For more information, speak to Debra or Rev. Peters.

Fourth Sunday Focus, July 26th

- Tom Parziale

Fourth Sundays give us an opportunity to connect with other members of our church family in a relaxed atmosphere: a pot of tea, a Box o'Joe, Munchkins . . . and conversation.

Our next "Fourth Sunday Focus" gathering will be on July 26th, in the air-conditioned meeting room. Due to the earlier worship time of 9:30 a.m., we will start around 8:30 a.m. and end by about 9:15 a.m.; but, join us whenever you can. If you have a topic you'd like to discuss, please contact Tom Parziale.
