Pastor's Letter

Last night was the winter solstice and it marked the shortest day of the year. From now until June 21st, the days will get longer and then the days will begin to get shorter again. We don't know what time of the year Jesus was born, but the popular theory for placing it on December 25th is that the celebration was combined with the pagan holiday Sol Invictus (the unconquered sun) in 274 AD by the Roman emperor Aurelian. On the darkest day of the year, we celebrate the coming of the light of God into the world.

We live our lives in cycles of light and darkness, warm and cold (except for this year), life and death. As we begin a new year, I am mindful that churches also go through cycles. We have been through a difficult time with building concerns and diminishing numbers. Yet, at the last Session meeting Paul Wermuth spoke of the fact that he feels the church has turned a corner and we are on the upswing. You will read more about all of this in my annual report letter.

I always feel like entering a new year is like the chalkboard (we all still remember what those are, don't we?) being erased and cleaned. It's another cycle in our lives and in the life of the church. At the turning of the year, there is the feeling we made it and we can look forward to good things ahead. With the light of God that has come into the world, we can go into the uncertain future with joy and courage.

As I close, I want to look back and say thank you to everyone for the wonderful celebration of my 25th anniversary as your pastor. I was touched by your warm words of my ministry among you. The gifts of the stoles were touching symbols of your placing the mantle of your love around me. I truly meant it when I said that you all have been a gift to me. Thank you again.

Happy New Year!

Tom

Also, everyone is invited to wear something blue to symbolize the water of our baptism.

Rev. Peters' 25th Anniversary Celebration

On Sunday, December 6th, the Worship Committee hosted a luncheon to celebrate Rev. Peters' 25th anniversary as our minister. On behalf of the congregation, Lore Pateman presented Tom with a stole and a check, which he used to purchase a second stole. He also received the latest installment of his "Memory Book." Rene' Phelan has continued to work on this project that Ellen Eastty began; it is a beautiful 25-year journey through Tom's ministry at the First Presbyterian Church of Stirling. Janet Parziale prepared a wonderful slide presentation of events from the past 25 years, and it was played during the luncheon.

Deacons Corner

Community Carol Sing and Ring

The Deacons want to thank everyone who came to the Carol Sing and Ring. It was a huge success and a lot of fun. We appreciate those who brought delicious cookies for the reception afterwards.

As 2015 comes to a close, we can look back at all of the successes that our church has had. May 2016 be a wonderful year for all of you and our church!

Thank You to Our Decorating Crew

Thank you to everyone who helped decorate for the Advent season. Our sanctuary and the luminaries looked beautiful!

Worship/Fellowship Hour Help

We need people to sign up to usher and host Fellowship Hour in the upcoming weeks. Remember that Fellowship Hour does not have to be fancy. All you need is coffee, tea, juice, and cookies. If you would like to donate towards it and have someone else host, speak to one of the Deacons.

Church Flowers

Please sign up on the Flower Chart in Pollard Hall if you would like to place flowers on the chancel for Sunday morning worship in honor or memory of someone. Allow enough lead time to have them ordered for the date you would like. The cost is $30, and cash or checks (made payable to: Flowers on the Ridge) should be given to Israel Sierra.

When you sign up on the flower chart, please be specific, i.e. in memory, honor, given by, and print clearly. Thank you.
