Pastor's Letter

Last night at the first of our Lenten Soup and Study sessions, we began our discussion of Borg and Crossan's book, The Last Week: A Day-by-Day Account of Jesus' Final Week in Jerusalem. The book challenges us to see the events of Holy Week in a very different way from what we generally have thought about them. We talked about the triumphal entry we celebrate on Palm Sunday and how it was a judgement of the domination system perpetrated by Rome in collaboration with the priests of the temple. We talked about the story of Jesus chasing out the money-changers and how faith during Jesus' time was about worship and not about justice. Jesus' words and acts were a symbolic destruction of the temple, which happened in reality almost 40 years later when the Romans destroyed the temple.

I mention all of this because this kind of study takes us out of our comfort zones and causes us to reflect and perhaps rethink our understandings and actions as Christians and as the Church, which, to my mind, is what the season of Lent is all about. As I shared in my sermon yesterday, it is so easy to construct a Christianity and a Church around our specifications. We take the world we live in and mash it up with the words of scripture and see what appears. However, that is not how it is to be done. We are supposed to start with the scriptures and end with the scriptures. That is the only way we can be in the world and not of the world, as Jesus was. The writer of the Gospel of John reminds us of this in the words of Jesus' long prayer in John 17:14-16:

I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. ¹⁵I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one. ¹⁶They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

Lent and Holy Week is our time, along with Advent, to take ourselves out of the world, to clear our eyes and reset our understanding with God. In our current election cycle, we are hearing so many different things coming out of candidates' mouths regarding what Christianity and Christ are all about. Some of it is not even Christian. We need to be clear about not only who Christ was, but also why he did and said the things he did and said. I hope you will take time to read and reflect on the scriptures during this Lent. Pick a Gospel and read a little of it each day during your Lenten journey. Attend the services of worship, especially during Holy Week, when there is a tendency to not attend Maundy Thursday or Good Friday because they are too depressing. They are important touchstones to what it means to be a follower of Christ. If you truly want to feel the joy of the Day of Resurrection, then you need to experience the whole of Holy Week.

May God bless you and all of us in our journey.

Service of Installation

On Sunday, February 7th, the following members of our congregation were installed:

As Elders:	Yvonne Fletcher	As Deacons:	Carolyn Malfatone
	Joyce Koenig		Rene' Phelan
	Sandy Mackay

We congratulate and welcome each of them to their new terms of service to our church. Thank you to Susan Brodziak, Janet Parziale, and Mike and Barbara Nugent for their commitment and dedication as their terms end.

Christian Education Committee- Lore Pateman*Souper Bowl of Caring Collection*- Tom Parziale

Thanks to your generous support, our youth collected $320 in their Souper Bowl of Caring Collection following worship on Super Bowl Sunday. They have chosen to split the donation between Family Promise of Morris County and the Market Street Mission in Morristown. Nationally, donations have totaled $9,434,396. This is one more step towards fulfilling our Church's mission, Feeding Those Who Hunger.

Adult Bible Study*- Rev. Peters

We have begun our study of the Gospel of John, using the book John, by Gail O'Day and Susan Hylan, from the Westminster Bible Companion series. The class meets from 10:30 am to Noon every Thursday in the meeting room. We have coffee and sometimes some delicious things to eat. We invite you to join us as we learn and share in fellowship, even if you have not been a part of it before or don't have the book.

Joint-Church Lenten Sunday Soup Supper and Study Series- Debra Sprague

This year's study is: The Last Week: What the Gospels Really Teach About Jesus' Final Days in Jerusalem. We will be using a book of the same title by Marcus Borg and John Dominick Crossan, which looks at the last week in Jesus' life, using the Gospel of Mark. (Participants do not have to purchase the book, but feel free to do so if you'd like to get into the topic in more depth.)

We share in a soup supper at 5:00 p.m., followed by our study, and we end by 7:00 p.m. All are invited to come, and feel free to bring friends.

Our church is hosting the last two sessions on March 6th & 13th. We will need to provide soup, bread, beverage, dessert, and child care. Please sign-up in Pollard Hall so we have an idea of how many will be attending and what you will be bringing. Shaylyn Gallagan is coordinating child care for both sessions; please contact her if you'd like to help.

Fourth Sunday Focus, March 27th

- Tom Parziale

Fourth Sundays give us an opportunity to connect with other members of our church family in a relaxed atmosphere: a pot of tea, a Box o’Joe, Munchkins . . . and conversation.

Our next “Fourth Sunday Focus” gathering will be on March 27th in Pollard Hall. We start around 8:45 a.m. and end by about 9:45 a.m., but join us whenever you can. In January, our topic was Bible Ladder—you’d be surprised how many similarities there are between these two. In February, our topic was Learning; The Art of.

If you have a topic you’d like to discuss, please contact Tom Parziale.

Pictured here is our “Fourth Sunday Focus” leader, who would not let two fractured clavicles keep him from his post!

Ending Homelessness One Family at a Time

One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS)

The three groups in the Presbyterian Church (USA) that benefit from our OGHS offering are: Presbyterian Hunger Program, Self-Development of People, and Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (PDA). We reach many people in desperate need through this offering and, unless people direct their giving specifically to them, this is the only way these three vital organizations receive funding. There are special OGHS envelopes in the church pews for this purpose; they will be collected early in April. Thank you.

Music Series

On Sunday, February 21st, 55 people from the church and community gathered to hear the Pasquale Grasso Jazz Quartet. It was an afternoon of wonderful classical jazz and very much enjoyed.

We are also planning for a concert on Sunday, April 10th. Be sure to invite friends, family, and neighbors to our concerts.
