Pastor's Letter

As I write this, the 2016 Olympics has just ended. The international games and hoopla are over. I did not watch much of the Olympics this year; I enjoy the winter version more than the summer version. However, the Olympics was not without its distractions, and most of it had nothing to do with Rio or Brazil hosting the games. Before the Olympics started, we heard horror stories of how the venues were not safe or, in some cases, not ready. We heard of security forces not having the time needed to practice security. We heard of the mosquito problem with the Zika virus. Yet, after all was said and done, the games came off very well. We only had the issues of the green water in the diving pool and a few other problems. The bigger problems were with the athletes themselves. We heard of athletes assaulting and harassing people. We heard of 4 members of the gold medal swim team filing a false report of being robbed at gunpoint. The story came out later, and is still being investigated, that they were drunk and had busted down a door and caused damage at a gas station.

We live in a time when there is a strong sense of entitlement by many people. I'm not talking about entitlements like health care, etc., but entitlements such as I am allowed to get drunk and do things to others and their property and not be held responsible for it. With celebrity comes this feeling of I can do anything I want and I won't be held responsible because I'm famous. We've seen it in professional sports players doing things that are destructive and they are not held responsible. I write about this because it seems to be an epidemic in our country with all of its money and celebrities.

If the Bible teaches us one thing, it is that we are personally responsible for our actions that hurt others. Jesus chastised the Jewish hierarchy of his day because they talked about caring for the people, but then they would do things like allowing for temple currency to be exchanged at a rate that brought in profit to the temple and priests. They talked about the sanctity of life and then allowed people to be stoned for not following the laws. The Gospel of Jesus Christ was about respect and love for each and every person, for all of our neighbors.

Each week we come to church to be reminded that we are all equal in God's sight. We come to worship the one who calls us to love our neighbors as ourselves. When we are bombarded day in and day out with the ways of the world that say "We are entitled," "You have to take care of yourself," we need a time to come and be touched by the grace and truth of Christ. We can be thankful that Jesus, the Christ, the anointed one of God, was like he was. I recall the words of Jesus when disciples of John the Baptist came to Jesus asking if he was the one or should they look for another. "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have good news brought to them. And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me."

As we begin our 2016-2017 program year, let us work to be in touch with Jesus and his way so that we can be in the world, but not of the world.

See you in church!

Tom

If you have a question, just want to talk, or have a friend you want to introduce to our church, plan to join Rev. Peters at the diner. Travnicek Memorial Ringers

The handbell choir will be starting up their practices again on Monday, Sept. 12th, 7:30 p.m. We will need some new players starting out the year; please talk to Rev. Peters if you have an interest in playing the bells. You don't need to be able to read music; you just have to be able to count.

Christian Education Committee*- Lore Pateman

Sunday School rally day is Sept. 18th! We have an exciting curriculum planned: "14 Great Women of the Bible," including Elizabeth, Mary, Mary Magdalene, Jael, Miriam, Ruth, Hannah, Sarah, and Esther. Also being planned is a unit on "God's Hand in Nature." More volunteers are needed to teach; you can sign up for a month or week, and you will be provided with the materials. Please contact Elaine Giordano if you can help out.

Adult Education*- Debra Sprague*Joint-Church Summer Series

Thank you to everyone who participated in our Joint-Church Summer Series during July and August. A special thanks to those who led the discussion groups: Rev. Barbara Aspinall, Heather Harris-Galgoci, Andrew Galgoci, and Rev. Tom Peters. If you have a topic you would like to suggest for a future session, please let Debra know.

Adult Bible Study*- Rev. Peters

Our Bible Study class meets at 10:30 a.m. every Thursday in the meeting room. On Sept. 1st, we will begin a study of the Book of Revelation. This is a complex book and one that almost didn't get into the New Testament canon. The first book we will be studying is "Revelations: Vision, Prophecy, and Politics in the Book of Revelation," by Dr. Elaine Pagels. We will then do a verse by verse study of Revelation using Dr. Bruce Metzger's book, "Breaking the Code: Understanding the Book of Revelation." The cost of the two books together is $21. If you want to join the group, please let Rev. Peters know so he can order the books for you.

Fourth Sunday Focus, Sept. 25th*- Tom Parziale

Fourth Sundays give us an opportunity to connect with other members of our church family in a relaxed atmosphere: a pot of tea, a Box o'Joe, Munchkins . . . and conversation. Our next "Fourth Sunday Focus" gathering will be on Sept. 25th. We start around 8:45 a.m. and end by about 9:45 a.m., but join us whenever you can. If you have a topic you'd like to discuss, please contact Tom Parziale.

Music Series Begins Again!

After the success of our inaugural concert series last fall through spring, we are starting a new series on Sunday, Sept. 11th, at 2:00 p.m. We will be welcoming back the Pasquale Grasso Jazz Quartet. They received wonderful accolades after their concert last winter. Plan now to invite your jazz-loving friends!

Admission is free; a free-will offering is accepted. A short reception will follow the concert, during which guests may meet the performers. Refreshments will be served.

Pasquale Grasso Jazz Quartet, Feb. 2016

September 11th is also the 15th anniversary of 9-11. Rev. Peters will be attending a service at the Shrine of St. Joseph that evening and everyone is invited to attend. He believes in the power of healing found in music. Jazz and blues help people express the pain in their lives and find healing. Please see information about this service on page 6.

Fall Fund Raiser

At the August Session meeting, it was decided to hold a fall fund raiser. We will host a Comedy Night on Saturday, Oct. 22nd, with the comedy group that came to the Millington Fire House last spring. We will have to sell tickets and provide snacks and beverages for the evening. Please see Rev. Peters if you would like to help organize this event.

Worship Committee

Sacrament of Baptism

On Sunday, Sept. 18th, we will celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism. Nolen Kenneth Mascola, the great-grandson of Carolyn Malfatone, will be baptized during our worship service. Nolen is the son of Kaleena and Kenneth Mascola (Carolyn's grandson), and the grandson of Carolyn's daughter, Diane and her husband, Mike Mascola.

Nolen's family invites everyone to attend a luncheon in Pollard Hall following the service. Please plan to join us for this joyous celebration.

The Tower of Remembrance is a place where everyone can reflect on the sacredness of lives remembered. The 35-foot Tower Memorial is dedicated to the memory of all those who lost their lives on 9/11. This Tower, emerging from the rubble of violence, reminds us that in God there is hope; that as we remember, we heal.

At the conclusion of the vigil, all are welcomed to remember and pray as they ring the bell. Attendees are invited to bring chairs. In case of rain, the service will be held in the Shrine Chapel.
